PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fellow Ill. N. A. members, this will be my last article to you as president. I have truly enjoyed the last two years, and they have gone quickly. During this time, I have seen our organization grow and our conventions rise to a level exceeded by only a few. This is due to the hard work of the host clubs, and the host club members. I have met many of the members and worked with them in various functions. All this has given me some insight on how much work and planning is necessary for Ill. N. A.

Our annual meeting at the convention will be one of the few times you — our members — can see the organization in action. Do try to attend as we encourage and seek the attendance of all members at the annual meeting. Anyone with questions or proposals will be called on under the appropriate topics. All members are encouraged to attend this meeting.

With this issue, each member will receive a ballot. Please take time to read about the candidates, and then vote for those whom you feel will best represent you and your views on the Ill. N. A. board. All the executive offices and three board seats are up for election.

I might add that our COIN DIGEST editor is looking for help in preparing the COIN DIGEST. Members who would like to help are asked to contact Editor Leonard and send a list of past experiences.

Of course, we are all looking forward to the Arlington Heights show. This should be one of the best. I shall be at the Ill. N. A. table Friday night to talk with members. Please do take time to drop by the Ill. N. A. booth. This is where you can take time to talk with most officers who will be there. Also — for those interested — Treasurer Miller will have a very limited number of silver 1974 and 1975 Ill. N. A. convention medals.

See you at Arlington Heights.

— Larry
